

I am writing to express my concern that the FCC is considering weakening Indiana's telephone privacy laws. This would be incredibly upsetting to my family and me. We have enjoyed the quiet evenings and reduced phone messages left during the day. Please protect our privacy.